

Love Begets
Love

How can we use our ingrained “like for like”
mentality in our journey into holiness?

Beloved, let us love one another,
for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. He who does not love does not know God, for God
is love.

- 1 John 4:7

Love has its origin in God.

God calls us through love:

Is your devotional life a duty rather than a joy?

When you sin, do you feel as though you are in trouble or that you hurt someone you love?

Do you share your resources freely with God or do you make a clear delineation between what is yours or his?

In this the love of God was manifested toward us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him. In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

- 1 John 4:9-10

Our response to God's love is to live a life where we love
others as Christ does.

A faith rooted in love
produces love.

Beloved, if God so loved
us, we also ought to love
one another.

- 1 John 4:11

He is talking about surrendering ourselves to one another the same way
Jesus gave Himself for us.

Holiness always means surrendering self.

Love begets loves when...

...we return good for evil

...we are robbed of the credit we deserve and we let go of the glory

...we pray for
our enemies

For I am already being poured out as a drink offering and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing.
