

Angry Love

So they came to Jerusalem. Then Jesus went into the temple and began to drive out those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves. ¹⁶ And He would not allow anyone to carry wares through the temple. ¹⁷ Then He taught, saying to them, “Is it not written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations’? But you have made it a ‘den of thieves.’”

- Mark 11:15-17

Jesus showed us it's all right to be angry.

God does not call us
to a passive faith.

Acts 17:6, Gal 2:11-13, Mk 11:15-16

A white cross is positioned on the right side of the image, set against a background of a sunset or sunrise over a field. The sky is filled with soft, warm colors like orange, yellow, and pink, with some clouds visible. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

You will not change anything you tolerate.

- You will not have a successful marriage unless you hate divorce and adultery.
 - You will not speak truth at all times unless you hate lies.
 - You will not walk in holiness unless you hate sin.

Jesus never got angry
because of something done to Him.

Holy anger is
never selfish.
(Mt 23:13, Mt 26:52-53)

We are more often angry because
we've been wronged
than because wrong
has been done.

Jesus wasn't motivated by anger, or even justice, He was motivated by love.

Holy anger is stirred up when people, not justice, get ignored.

We can be angry
about the right
things but that doesn't mean we're
motivated by love.

Jesus' anger served
a purpose: it was helpful to those who needed help.

“Be angry, and do not sin”: do not let the sun go down on your wrath, nor give place to the devil.

Holy anger will motivate you to do something.

(Eph 4:26-27)

Are you angry
enough?
