So they came to Jerusalem. Then Jesus went into the temple and began to drive out those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves.¹⁶ And He would not allow anyone to carry wares through the temple.¹⁷ Then He taught, saying to them, “Is it not written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations’? But you have made it a den of thieves.”

Jesus showed us it’s alright to be _____.

God does not call us to a passive faith.

Acts 17:6, Gal 2:11-13, Mk 11:15-16

You will not change anything you _____.

Jesus never got angry because of something done to Him.

Holy anger is never _____.

Mt 23:13, Mt 26:52-53

We are more often angry because we’ve been _____ than because wrong has been done.

Jesus wasn’t motivated by anger, or even justice, He was motivated by _____.

Holy anger is stirred up when people, not _____, gets ignored.

We can be angry about the right things but that doesn’t mean we’re motivated by love.

Jesus’ anger served a purpose; it was _____ to those who needed help.

Holy anger will motivate you to do something.

Eph 4:26-27

Are you angry enough?
